

SECURITY IMPLICATIONS OF CLIMATE CHANGE IN THE ASIA-PACIFIC

Date: April 8, 2011 (Fri.)

Venue: Global Green Growth Institute

Co-hosted by:

Ilmin International Relations Institute of Korea University and Global Green Growth Institute

Supported by: Consortium of Non-Traditional Security Studies in Asia (NTS-Asia) and YTN

Schedule

9:00 AM Registration

9:30AM Opening Ceremony

Opening Remarks: Kim Sung-han, Director of Ilmin International Relations Institute,
Korea University

Welcoming Remarks: Richard Samans, Executive Director, GGGI

Keynote Speech: Young Soogil, Chairman, Presidential Committee on Green Growth

9:50AM Session 1: Security Aspects of Climate Change

Chair:

Kim Sung-han, Director of Ilmin International Relations Institute, Korea University

Speakers:

Andrew Holland, International Institute for Strategic Studies (Washington, D.C.)

Wan Portia Hamzah, Institute of Strategic and International Studies (Malaysia)

Discussants:

Lee Geun, Seoul National University (Korea)

Choi Kang, Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security (Korea)

Noon Luncheon

1:30PM Session 2: Current Responses to Climate Change in the Asia-Pacific

Chair:

Wan Portia Hamzah, Institute of Strategic and International Studies (Malaysia)

Speakers:

Emma Rachmawaty, Ministry of Environment (Indonesia)

Zhang Haibin, Peking University (China)

Sofiah Jamil, Nanyang Technological University (Singapore)

Discussants:

Lee Myung Kyoon, Global Green Growth Institute (Korea)

Lee Minho, Ministry of Environment (Korea)

Roger Dungan, Embassy of New Zealand (New Zealand)

3:30PM Coffee Break

3:45PM Session 3: Increasing Accountability of Regional Organizations to Address Climate Change in the Asia-Pacific

Chair:

Cho Won Dong, Former Vice Minister, Prime Minister's Office of Korea (Korea)

Speakers:

Chung Suh-Yong, Korea University (Korea)

Samantha Hung, Asian Development Bank

Discussants:

Natalie Barnes, Australian Embassy (Australia)

Park Siwon, Global Green Growth Institute (Korea)

5:15PM Wrap-up

5:45PM Closing